IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

(SUO MOTU) CONTEMPT PETITION NO. 375 OF 2000
IN
WRIT PETITION NO. 746 OF 2000

High Court on its own Motion .. Petitioner.

V/s.

Shri Ravindra S. Shejwal .. Contemnor.

Mr.C.R.Sonawane, AGP for the Petitioner.

Mr.K.S.Dewal for the Contemnor.

CORAM : S. A. BOBDE, J.

DATED : 08th AUGUST, 2007.

P.C. :-

. The contemnor has filed an affidavit pointing out that due to ill health he may have unintentionally said something to the Education Officer, which were interpreted as an abuse. He has further stated that he suffers from panic and that is what has happened on the occasion in question. The contemnor has, however, tendered an unconditional apology and gave an undertaking that such conduct will not be repeated again.

2. Having regard to the circumstances of the case, the contemnor’s apology is accepted. Notice is discharged. Contempt petition disposed of accordingly.
